CAMP HELAMAN 2019

Camp Rules of Conduct

1. Help every chance you get. "Priesthood = Service"
2. Thank everyone – the Cooks, the Speakers, your Leaders, everyone. "Attitude of Gratitude"
3. Remember the code of Camp Helaman: EFIGIAYG!
   "Enthusiasm. Feel it. Give it all you got!"
4. Lights out every night means – "Go to Sleep!"
5. Only kind and truly helpful "service pranks" are allowed
6. No camper leaves camp at any time without the permission of the Adult Camp Director
7. No camper is allowed to use or drive a vehicle while at camp (even if it is your own car)
8. BE SAFE! No swimming except at designated free swim time. "Think before you do"
9. Stay with your assigned District and Zone at ALL times
10. PLEASE LEAVE ELECTRONIC DEVICES HOME – Even if used to access the scriptures! Bring your actual book scriptures.

We are asking the cooperation of all attendees, parents and adult leaders to follow the rules regarding electronic devices. No cell phones, Ipods, portable game units etc. No headphones or ear buds.

If you NEED to use a cell phone to call or text someone during Camp, get permission from the Camp Presidency first.
